REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the present invention relates to a method and an apparatus for trimming a semiconductor integrated circuit after encapsulating step. The independent claims 1 and 14 recite a method and an apparatus for trimming a semiconductor integrated circuit including an analog circuit comprising after an encapsulating step, a step of storing, in a non-volatile storage element, a second, different trimming data for performing fine trimming of said analog circuit, wherein, in said second trimming step, said storing of said second trimming data in said non-volatile storage element is electrically performed by applying a voltage to an external terminal of said semiconductor integrated circuit device. The prior art fails to disclose or suggest such step of trimming a semiconductor integrated circuit including an analog circuit comprising after an encapsulating step as described in the independent claims 1 and 14, therefore, claims 1-4 and 14-16 are in condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
